(Pending)

Dear Mr. Turcot,

Please find enclosed herewith a copy of the Notification under Article 67(3) EPC advising us of the European publication number and informing us that the technical preparation for publication has been completed.

For your information, the bibliographic data of this European patent application has been published on April 26, 2017 in Section I.1 of the European Patent Bulletin under serial number 3 157 483. We are also informed by this communication of the possibility to request provisional protection under Article 67(1) and (2) EPC in any of the designated states. Should you wish to obtain such provisional protection due to a potential infringement for example, in some contracting state(s), it will be necessary to file a translation of the claims in the language of the chosen contracting state(s). Unless we hear from you otherwise, we shall not take any steps in order to obtain provisional protection.

It should also be pointed out that if protection is required in Hong Kong, it will be necessary to record this European patent application with the Hong Kong authorities within six (6) months from the publication date of the bibliographic data, i.e. by October 26, 2017. Please let us have your instructions regarding this matter or let us know if you need further details about this possibility. Again, without your specific instructions in this respect, we shall not take any steps in order to obtain protection in Hong Kong at this time by way of an extension based on this European application.

Awaiting to hear from you in the very near future should you wish to move forward. in the meantime, we remain,

Best Regards,

Isabelle Klein on behalf of Franz Bonsang
